

eBacon Announces Strategic Partnership with GBQ to Strengthen Certified Payroll & Prevailing Wage Compliance for Construction Contractors

New alliance gives construction payroll and accounting teams deeper compliance support, integrated expertise, and end-to-end workforce management solutions

PHOENIX, AZ – December 5, 2026

eBacon, a leading provider of construction payroll and certified payroll compliance technology, today announced a new strategic partnership with GBQ, a nationally respected CPA and advisory firm with deep experience serving the construction industry. Through this alliance, contractors will gain integrated financial guidance and advanced payroll compliance tools designed to reduce risk, strengthen prevailing wage accuracy, and streamline workforce management across every project.

This partnership brings together GBQ's trusted construction accounting expertise with eBacon's purpose-built compliance and workforce management platform. Together, the companies will help construction payroll managers, accounting teams, and business owners stay compliant with complex labor requirements while improving operational efficiency and clarity in job cost reporting.

Integrated Expertise for Construction Payroll and Compliance

Key benefits for contractors include:

- Strengthened certified payroll and prevailing wage reporting
- Reduced audit exposure and payroll documentation errors
- Improved job costing accuracy and financial visibility
- Enhanced workforce and time tracking workflows
- Greater confidence navigating multi-state and multi-agency compliance rules

“A strategic alliance between a CPA firm and a construction payroll company provides construction contractors with integrated expertise, compliance assurance, and operational efficiency,” said Christopher Mast, Partner at GBQ. “This partnership will empower contractors to optimize their financial management, reduce risk, and concentrate on building successful projects.”

“GBQ is excited about this strategic alliance with eBacon to further support our clients with a payroll provider that has a true expertise with prevailing wage,” added Mast.

“We’re thrilled to partner with GBQ,” said Gary Zimmermann, Director of Strategic Partnerships at eBacon. “Their reputation in the construction industry, especially as a CICPAC member firm, aligns perfectly with our mission to simplify compliance and strengthen financial outcomes for contractors. Together, we’re giving construction teams the tools, guidance, and confidence they need to stay compliant and stay competitive.”
